

INTRODUCING

ARUBA CERTIFIED NETWORK TECHNICIAN

Discover your new career

The world needs tech talent!

Computer networking is shaping the future of every industry—from business to healthcare to entertainment, and more. If you're a student, emerging professional, or career-changer looking to get into networking, the possibilities are truly limitless.

Hotels are eager to offer guests strong digital experiences to increase loyalty.

Stadiums now support crowds of digital natives and broadcast tech-connected events at scale.

Hospitals and patients count on network connectivity to be seamless and secure.

The Aruba Certified Network Technician from Aruba, a Hewlett Packard Enterprise company, is a fast, affordable, and easy entry point to the world of computer networking.

Geared towards those who are new to Aruba technology, our introductory Get the Edge course delivers a comprehensive overview of the many ways enterprise networks support our digital world. With this certification, you'll be well-prepared to start your career as a networking professional and have a strong foundation for future learning and skill development.
